9th International Conference on Low-Volume Roads

June 24–27, 2007
Austin, TX

This conference, held only once every four years, is a major activity of the Transportation Research Board's Committee on Low-Volume Roads. It provides a full agenda of presentations, workshops, and field trips for learning about the variety of low-volume roads research being conducted internationally and for connecting with professionals from around the world who are dealing with similar challenges. For more information about the program and for online registration, see www.cae.utexas.edu/9LVR/Reg.htm. ■
